TIME'S UP...

Welcome to the future, 200 years from Sonic and the Freedom Fighters' present!

Silver the Hedgehog's life's been flipped and turned upside down! After meeting the irrepressible Prof. Von Schlemmer, he learned that reality itself is in danger of being torn apart by destructive space-time anomalies called Genesis Portals, and only he can heal these rifts before they grow wildly out of control!

But Onyx City's Council have other plans for the portals, and they don't want Silver getting in the way! Fortunately for him, ex-council member and telepath Gold the Tenrec has joined Silver's side to help him and the Professor out...

Unfortunately, it wasn't enough to stop the Council from accidentally unleashing a time-eating monster on the city!

Will Silver and Co. be able to stop the Second Devourer before it erases everything in its path?

Letter from the EDITOR

An editorial smorgasbord of comments waiting to be "devoured"!

BELOW: The final design for The Second Devourer. Note the thin wispy trails of hands and the use of color to give a gaseous effect.

Grrreat Scott, Sonic fans!

As one portal closes, another opens! Now that's what I call an open ending!

All jokes aside, I'd like to take a moment to give congratulations to the writer of the "Silver Age," Evan Stanley! This was Evan's first time writing for the Sonic books and I think she did a killer job! I'm always excited to see what Evan will bring to the table whether it be drawing, coloring or writing; it's always a pleasure to jam with her! Speaking of drawing, check out this awesome concept art of the Second Devourer that Evan whipped up! There were many different options leading to the final design, which is prominently featured on the main cover of this issue!

Well that's all for Silver, Von Schlemmer, the Bits and Gold for now! Don't fret, readers! We will learn of their fate soon enough! But next, things are going to get even more Eggciting as we dive right into the heart of the mad doctor's base of operations in Eggman's Dozen!

See ya then!

Dear 'My Sonic Universe,'
My name is Tayze, I'm a big Sonic fan, and I'm loving the new world. Of course, I wasn't just writing in to say that, I also have a few brief inquiries to ask.

Hiya, Tayze! Ask away!

1) I'm a Jet the Hawk fan (do a halfway decent Jet voice if I do say so myself!) and I was wondering if they are any plans for having him and the Babylon Rogues to show up in the current story? Perhaps a storyline about them in Sonic Universe? I'd just like to see some more of him.

Not immediately, but you never know what the future (or a name drop) may bring. We haven't forgetten the Rogues, though, and they do exist in the new world! You'll see how, in due time!

2. Something I noticed in a previous story arc (which was awesome by the way) was Bark having apprehension about giving the chaos emerald to Dr. Eggman, and even Fang seemed honestly concerned about the state the world was in. Is this perhaps leading to some well-deserved character development for my favorite under-dog team?

Character development is always good. Where our Sonic scribe, Ian Flynn, decides to take that development, you'll have to wait and see! But, as the "Shattered World" story continues, you'll soon see that not everyone bad is aligned with the doctor and not everyone good is aligned with Sonic and the Freedom Fighters. Sometimes it's more interesting to see the world in several shades of grey...

3) Final question (I have more, but well... I don't want to use up too much of your time, you've got awesome stories to write after all!).

That we do!

I'm loving the new "Silver Age" arc, I really like making Silver's future a more distopian thing rather than the fiery, post-apocalyptic world it's usually depicted as. So this brings up a question, will we be seeing more of this? More of Silver fighting this corrupt government, serving as an almost parallel to Sonic's story, fighting Eggman. It seems like it could work pretty well as a separate series altogether! "Going out to get some Silver the Hedgehog comics" has a nice ring to it, don't it?

It does! But, as the ending of the "Silver Age" has proven, we never quite go the "expected" route! Where will our future fighter and his new crew end up next? And how will the Council and Onyx City factor into it? For those answers, you'll have to stay tuned to "future" (see what I did there! Hahaha that's funny I'm funny) issues of Sonic Universe and see...

Anyway, just a couple thoughts I had about the future of the comics. You guys keep being awesome, and I'm going to go listen to some Crush 40! Have a lovely evening (or morning... afternoon... timezones are weird.)

Take care, friend... and stop stealing my schtick!

Dear 'My Sonic Universe,'
In the "Silver Age" arc, what exactly is a "Teal-Class worker" and does it have any relevance to Silver? Are people with powers that specific rank or no?

Kayla B. sent to
Sonic@ArchieComics.com

See the colored bands around Silver's arm gauntlets and the rings on both sides of his hands? They're teal which means that Silver falls into that specific class. His powers of psychokinesis, however, much like Gold's telepathy, are his own and their origins remain a mystery...

Dear 'My Sonic Universe,'
How many more issues until SPOILER fights SPOILER? (SPOILER ALERT)
Just another crazy fangirl
